Description

FULLTEC CUBE

Fulltec Cube is a strong blend of plant health components that activate natural plant defenses, making crops more resistant to fungal and bacterial attacks. The plant health combined with the right levels of nutrition is the key factor for high-yield crops.

Main Benefits:

Protection

The natural fungicides and amino acids from Fulltec Cube will protect plants from most fungal and bacterial attacks.

Stay-green

The combination of nutrition with plant health keeps the leaves greener until the end of the crop cycle.

Nutrition

The nutrient package keeps more blooms on the plants and keeps major diseases out of the field.
